RE: U.S. Department of Labor, Office of Apprenticeship Training, Employer and Labor Services v. California Department of Industrial Relations
DOCKET #20002 CCP #1

Dear Judge Vittone,

We were served with Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents from OATELS on January 17, 2003. We agreed with OATELS to extend time to answer or otherwise respond to March 18, 2003, with an indication that additional time might be needed, but did not request your approval at that time. We enclose the confirming letter and would request your approval of this extension.

Very truly yours,

Fred D. Lonsdale
Counsel

RE: Department of Labor, Office of Apprenticeship Training, Employer and Labor Services, Prosecuting Party v. California Department of Industrial Relations, Respondent
Case No. 2002-CCP-1

Dear Mr. Jones,

Per our telephone conversation of this today's date, this is to confirm your agreement to extend the California Department of Industrial Relations' time to answer or otherwise respond to the Department of Labor's interrogatories to March 18, 2003. As I indicated, we may need additional time and if so we will contact you prior to March 18.

Thank you for the professional courtesy you have extended in this matter.

Very truly yours,
